Special Appeal – The Vestry has voted to ask for a Special Appeal to be put before our congregation. We, as a congregation, passed a deficit budget at the last Annual meeting and the Rector, Wardens and Vestry have worked very hard to control the spending but currently our deficit is in excess of $20,000.

Therefore, at this time, we need your prayers asking for God's guidance to reduce this current deficit and to guide us in planning the 2018 Budget. We are appealing to you, our congregation, that if you are able to make extra financial contributions at this time, it would be greatly appreciated to bring this deficit down.

Cold Pot Luck – Company's coming! On December 3 the Cantata "Morning Star" is being performed. Members of the choir from the Parish of Sussex and the Parishes of Waterford and St. Mark have been practicing. The Parishes of Waterford and St. Mark have been invited to participate in the service that day. To enjoy a time of fellowship, a cold potluck lunch (sandwiches, sweets, finger foods) will be held following the 11:00 a.m. service.
